There is no "subsequent correspondence" in this file. Can M.E. Scovaricci throw any light on the question?

M.E. Scovaricci

I think subsequent correspondence must have been purely between Treasury & B.M.E.O - we have no record in M.E.S. But I have spoken to Mr. Townsend at the Treasury who filed in the main app. Stalling tactics have been applied by the War Office on the principle that the longer we take in coming to a decision officially the less we shall have to pay out to the Americans - who are apparently in the right. The Treasury are considering a suitable reply to B.M.E.O.

themselves to an interim reply. I am afraid it may not prove very helpful since the War Office apparently neither hear, see nor speak on this subject.
